

Social Content that Clicks

Social media is changing fast and salons who know how to adapt are the ones who stay booked, visible, and in demand.

This 2-hour class is designed to take the overwhelm out of content creation and give you a clear, confidence-building system you can actually stick to.

We'll break down what's working right now, how to create content that attracts your dream guests, and how to use your phone (or camera) to create content that gets views.

What You'll Learn:

- A fresh understanding of what's happening on social media
- List of video ideas you can start filming immediately
- A clear content plan
- Confidence to show up online with purpose
